

Creating an Individual Space in SpacesEDU for Core Competencies provides students with a dedicated place to meaningfully and authentically document and reflect upon the Core Competencies. Posts can be tagged with Core Competencies for visibility and additional organization.

How can you create this Space?

1. Click on Spaces from the top navigation menu
2. Click +Create
3. Select Individual and click ✓Next
4. Select which students you are assigning this Space to
 - a. If you select All Students, you are creating an Individual Space for each one of your students!
5. Name the Space, Describe, and add Media > Click ✓Save
6. Click Students (top right) to change your visibility settings

Core Competencies

This space is for documenting the Core Competencies: Thinking, Communication, and Personal & Social

TIP: Use the Audio or Video Media tools to differentiate your instructions for this Space!

Jack Mitchell

Core Competencies

Creative Thinking

Today in ELA we brainstormed different endings to the book Holes. We had to write down as many ideas as we could think of in ten minutes. Some were very funny! We go

...
View More

This work demonstrates...

T • Thinking

TIP: Use Activities to assign a competency reflection. Activities allow teachers to pre-tag the competency - a great time saver!

Emiliano Rodriguez

Goal Setting and Core Competencies

Communication: Mock Court

I won! Why? I was more convincing than the defense, and it was because of my communication skills. How was I convincing? I had a very strong beginning and closing

...
View More

This work demonstrates...

C • Communication

Emma Drummond

Core Competencies

Personal and Social: Caring for the environment

In class today we planted trees. We need to plant trees because plants clean the air. There is a lot of pollution but trees help. I really like animals, and many animals live in trees and need trees for food. ...

TIP: Add feedback to student reflections. Families can do the same!

Mr. Anderson • Teacher

Excellent presentation! What is one communication strength you're proud of, and what is one area you can improve upon?

Encourage students to add additional reflections to their Posts

Jonas Conall

I was great with my verbal communication. I'm proud of this. I would work on my listening skills to improve next time because...